

5TH SIGNAL COMMAND

COMMANDING GENERAL

CMR 421

APO AE 09056

Welcome to 5th Signal Command! It is my pleasure to welcome you and your family to your new assignment.

During your assignment, you will be provided a unique opportunity to meet new professional expectations and to expand your cultural experiences. An assignment in United States Army, Europe is a professionally and personally rewarding opportunity for Soldiers, civilian employees, and family members.

5th Signal Command is our Army's largest and most forward-deployed Theater Signal Command. The command has the mission of providing premier command and Information Technology (IT) communications support for all major subordinate commands of United States Army, Europe. Comprised of 2nd and 7th Signal Brigades, the Command's units and organizations are based across Germany, Italy, Benelux, and the United Kingdom, and its Soldiers and civilians support Army, joint, and combined forces in the United States European Command and the United States Central Command.

Several resources are available to ensure your successful transition and integration into our command. Your commander or civilian supervisor will assign to you a sponsor to assist with pre-arrival in-processing requirements, and to address any concerns that you may have.

Enclosed with this memorandum is a welcome packet containing a variety of information about community services and our host country, Germany. I also invite you to visit 5th Signal Command's website at <http://www.5sigcmd.army.mil/>. Please use the information and resources you have been provided to make this assignment a positive experience for you and your family.

Again, congratulations on your new assignment. I am confident that you will find United States Army, Europe and 5th Signal Command a great place to serve. Welcome!

"Dragon Warriors,
Any Mission, Anywhere!"

Encl

DENNIS L. VIA
Brigadier General, USA
Commanding